"60"

Every school year consists of two parts — the new and the old — which are blended together in varying degrees, making each year new and different.

This year, with its increasing emphasis on modern thinking and looking toward the future, we on the annual staff have tried to produce a book which will meet the challenge of the times.

The contrast between the old and the new is great, but the tradition of the past influences the future. The traditional SH is a symbol of the old, but the new may find a purpose in it, also. In presenting this annual, The Purple and Gold Staff hopes to see the old SH remain a symbol of pride and encouragement to its future students.

Dedication

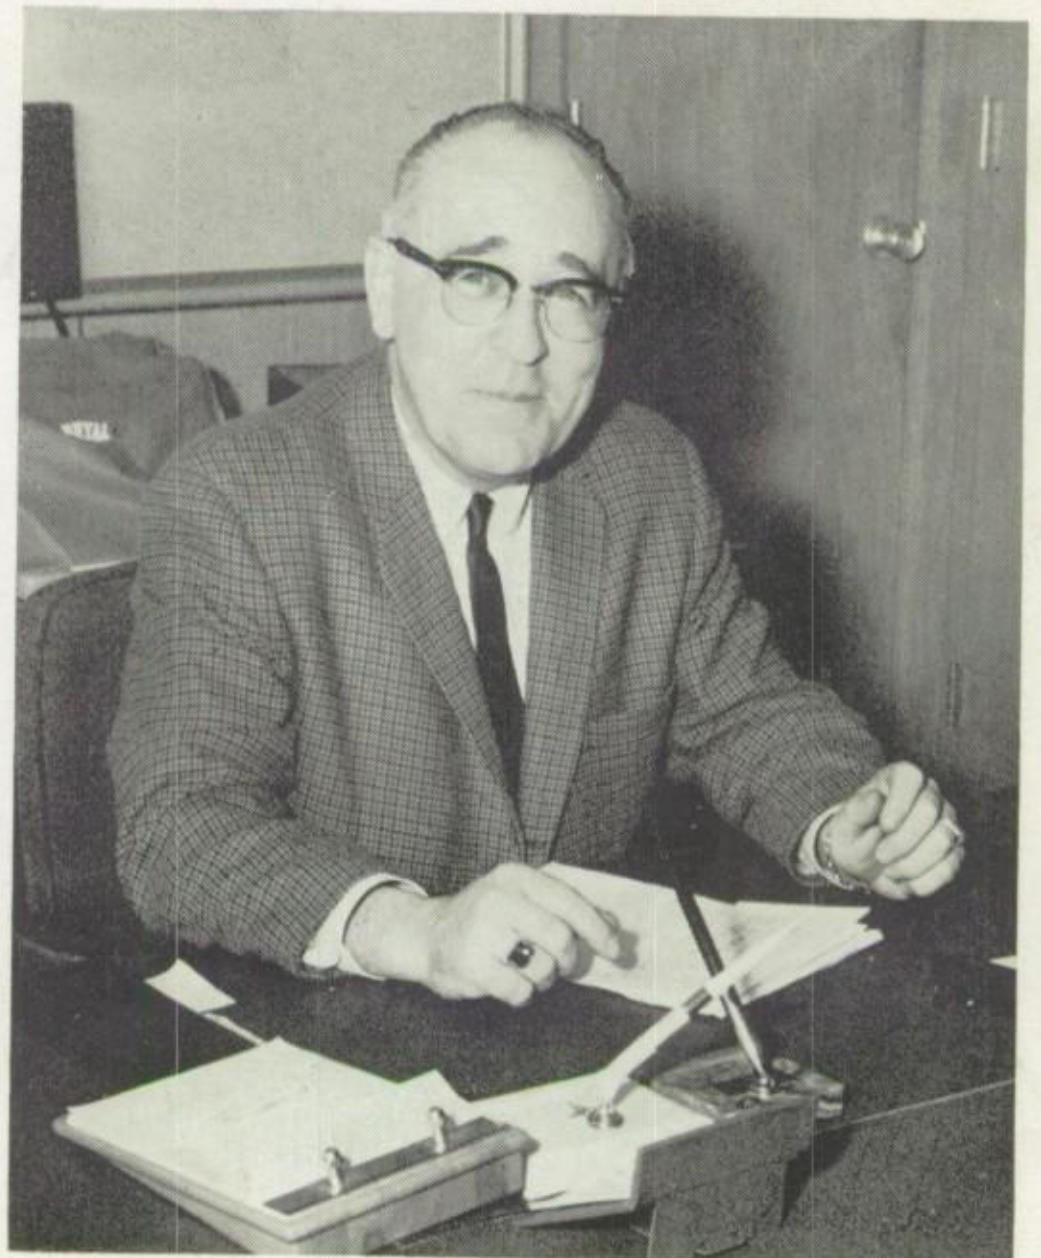

Because of the long hours he has given to his students as track and cross-country coach and as faculty sponsor of the Industrial Science Club, the class of 1964 proudly dedicates its Purple and Gold to Mr. Ronald Den Uyl.

Class Song

by

Nancy Harrison

1. From the first day of school 'til our senior year, We have traveled many paths and the future now seems near.
How the days and the weeks and the months flew by!
As we look back on them now, we do this with a sigh.
2. Every one can remember the Junior Play.
Every now and then we laugh at "Dirty Work" today.
All the varsity games were a lot of fun —
Even though too many times our opponents won.
3. The classmates, the teachers, the crowded hall Have helped us span the years 'til our own Christmas Ball.
And the Prom with its elegant southern theme Really seemed as if it were a "Dixieland Dream."
4. All the days left behind bring back memories.
And the days that lie ahead will be full of prophecies.
For as long as we live — forevermore —
We will never forget the great class of 'sixty-four.

Class Poem

And so it's come to pass What once was just a class
Is now the pride of '64,
The heritage of L. C. Mohr.

As cap and gown are put in place,
We say good-by and turn our face To futures bright with hope, Perchance to meet with broader scope.

We've weathered the storm of the years gone by — Oh, how those years have seemed to fly!
We've molded our lives toward a purpose to fulfill,
A purpose which opportunity and determination instill.

Some will journey the road alone.
Others stay behind to make their home.
And those whose futures burst with promise Will someday return to be among us.

Adding glory to the story
The Class of '64 — L. C. Mohr.

Homecoming 1963

The "crowning point" of Homecoming activities was met with much excitement by Jeff Holmes and Kathy Springett, who were crowned Homecoming King and Queen by Kathy Ritenburgh. Looking on with great satisfaction in the choice of King and Queen, was the court, Sharon Jerue, Karen Fritz, Tom Leonard, and Albert Anthony. A beautiful night and a dreamy dance, Deep Purple, made Homecoming a memorable night of our senior year.

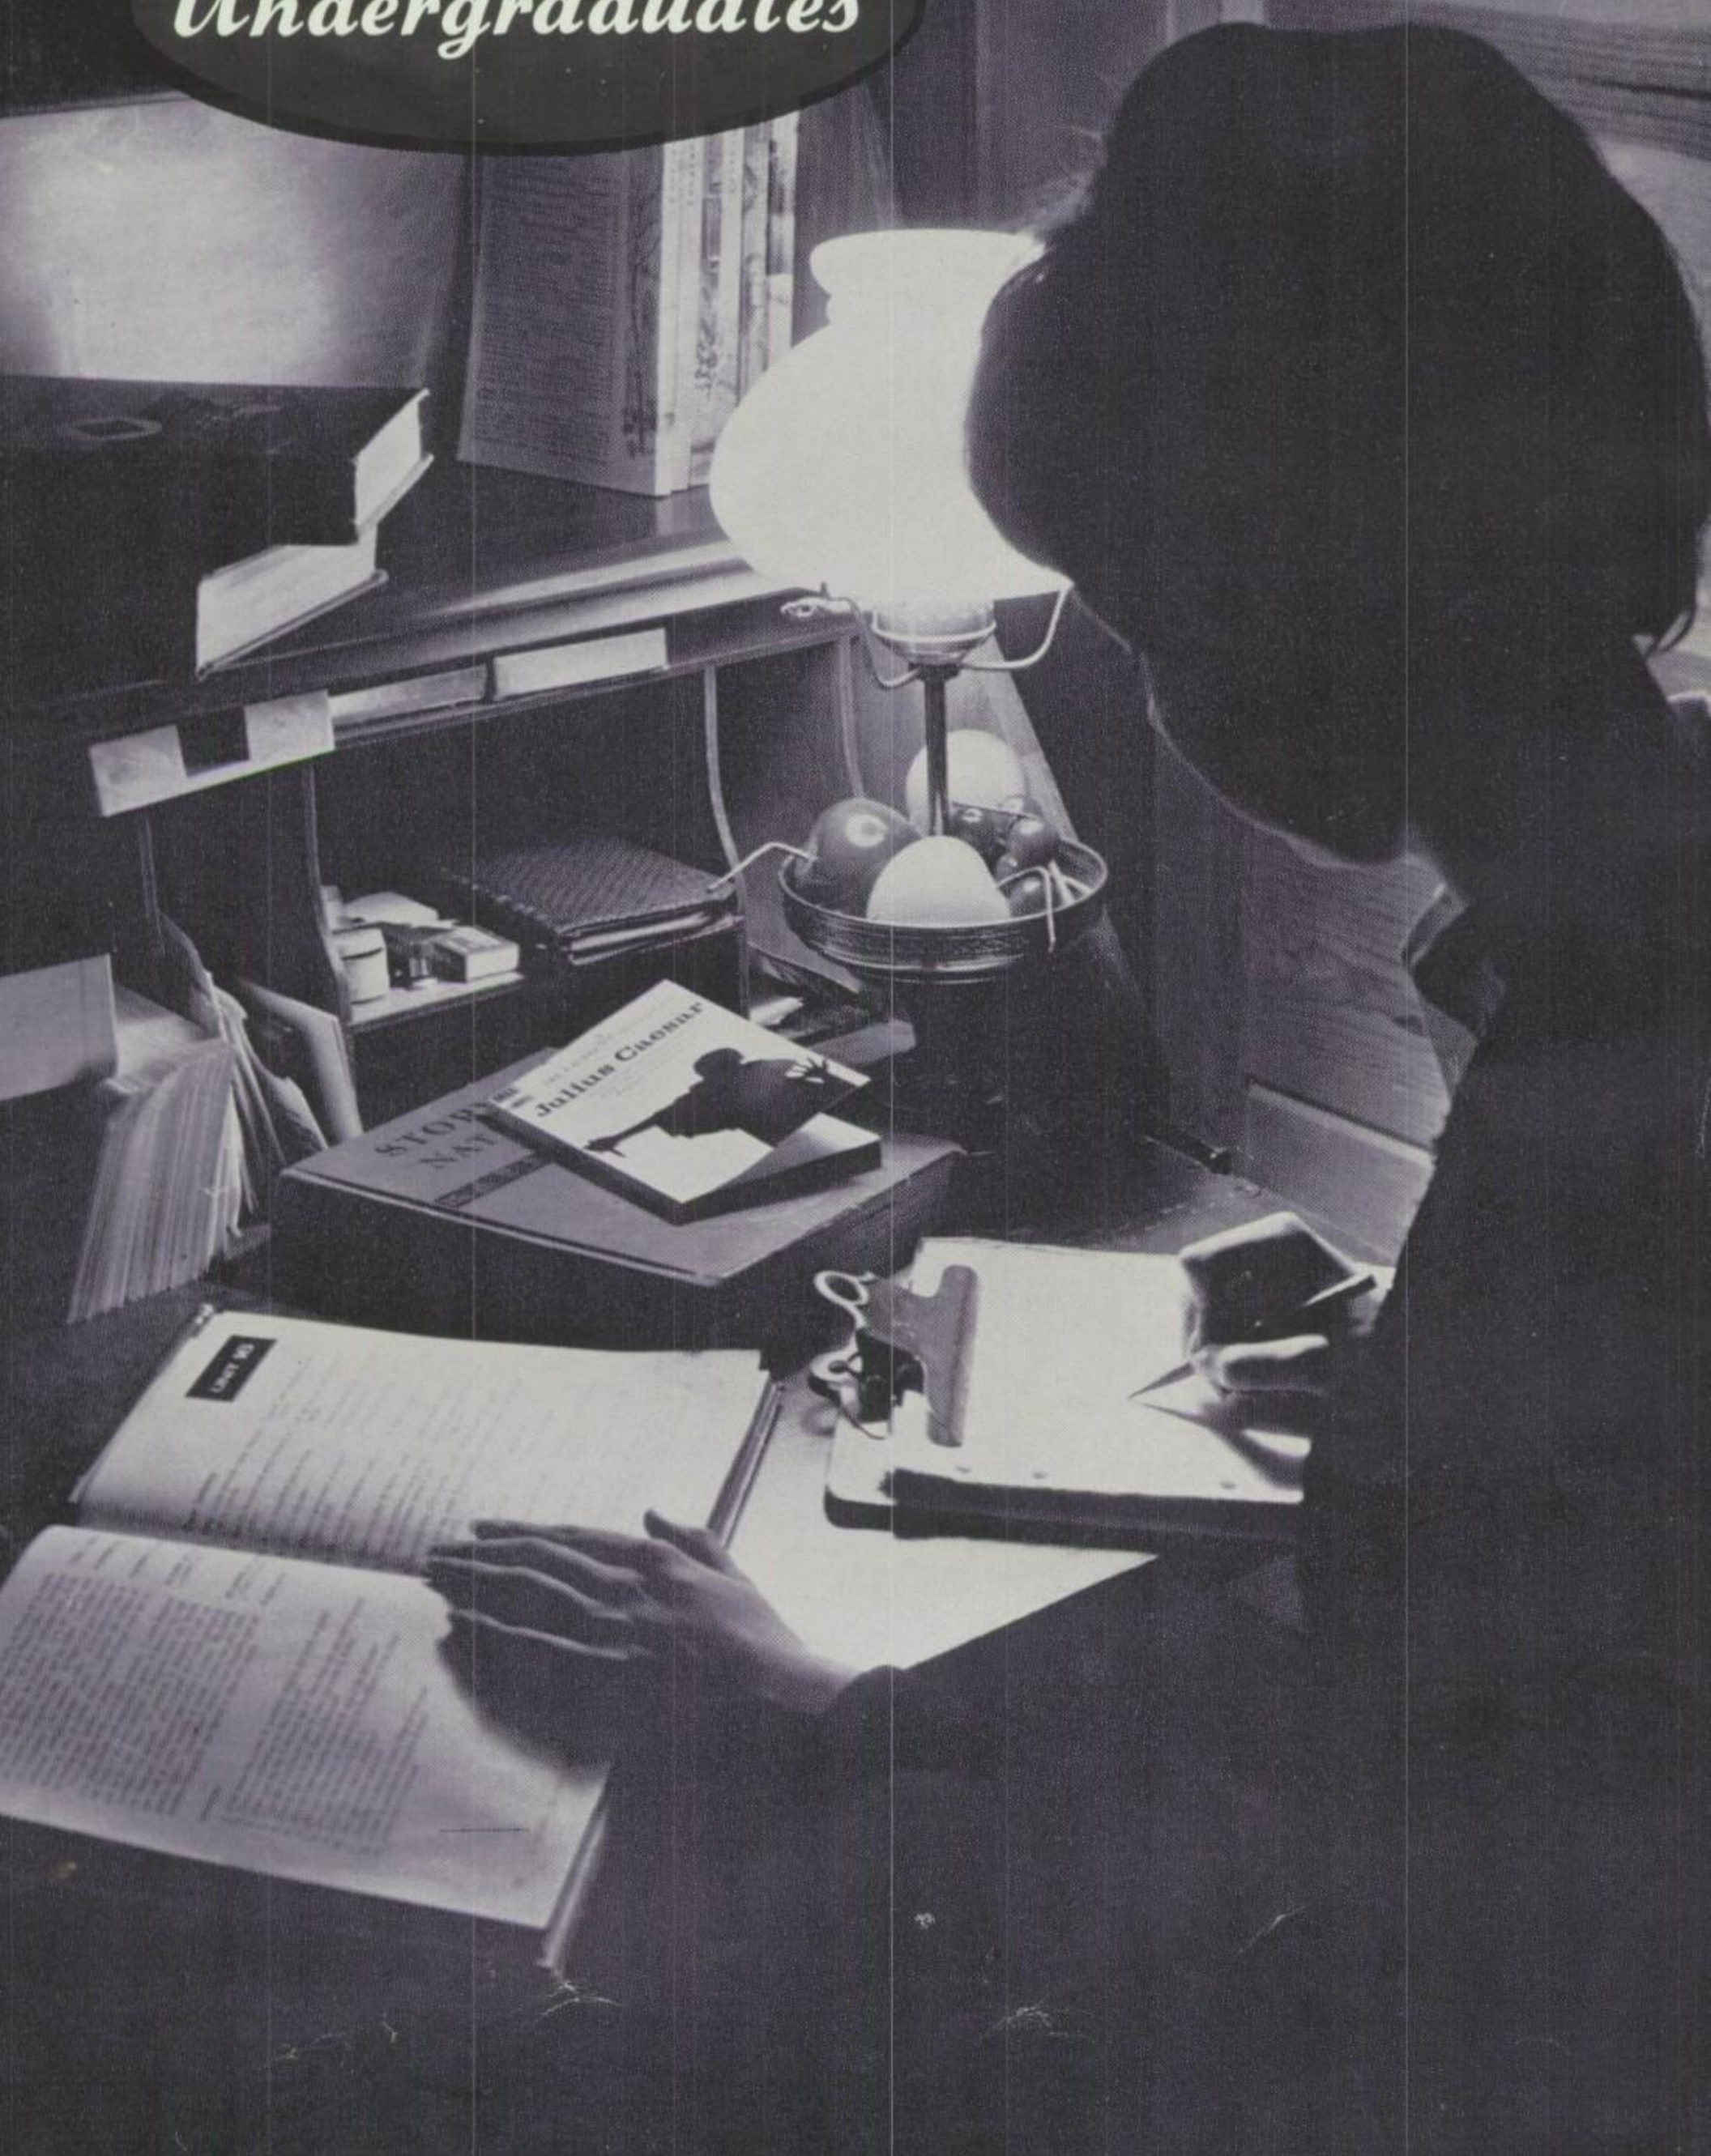

Christmas Ball

No year is complete without a Christmas semi-formal ball. "Splendor by Starlight" sponsored by the seniors, was the holiday event which will be long remembered by many Mohr students.

Varsity Football

Early fall brought enthusiastic students to the football field to begin the football season.

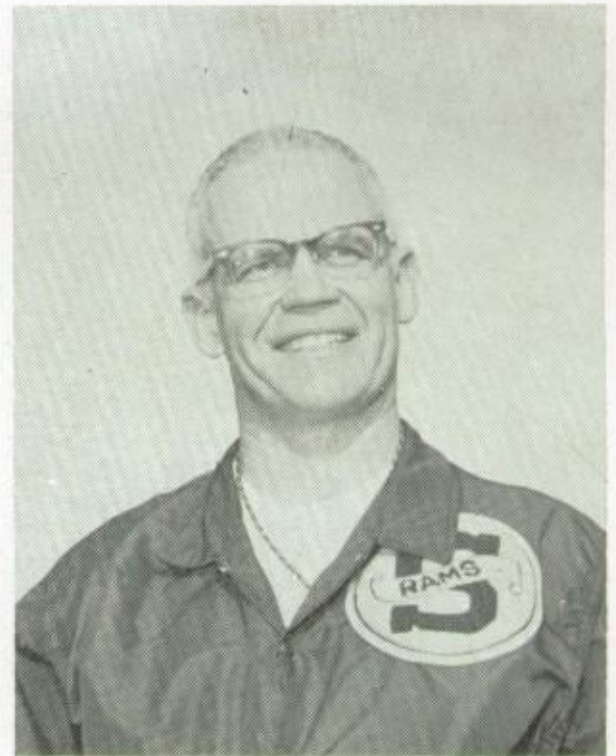

The '63 grid season opened at Coloma. Throughout the season South Haven was met by many rough opponents but was able to weather the storm with a record of 3-5.

The team suffered greatly from the number of fairly inexperienced players, but the future looks bright for the coming seasons.

After weeks of hard work and good sportsmanship, the Rams completed an interesting season.

Freshman Football

Freshmen Football is seldom viewed by many spectators, but is quite popular with the ninth grade boys who hope some day to be on the varsity team.

While going out for an after school sport, the boys learn team co-operation and improve their athletic ability. Coaching the team this season was Gary Smith.

The J.V. Rams posted an excellent over-all record of 15 wins and 1 loss. The team averaged 63 points per game with a total of 1001 points in all — a J.V. record for South Haven.

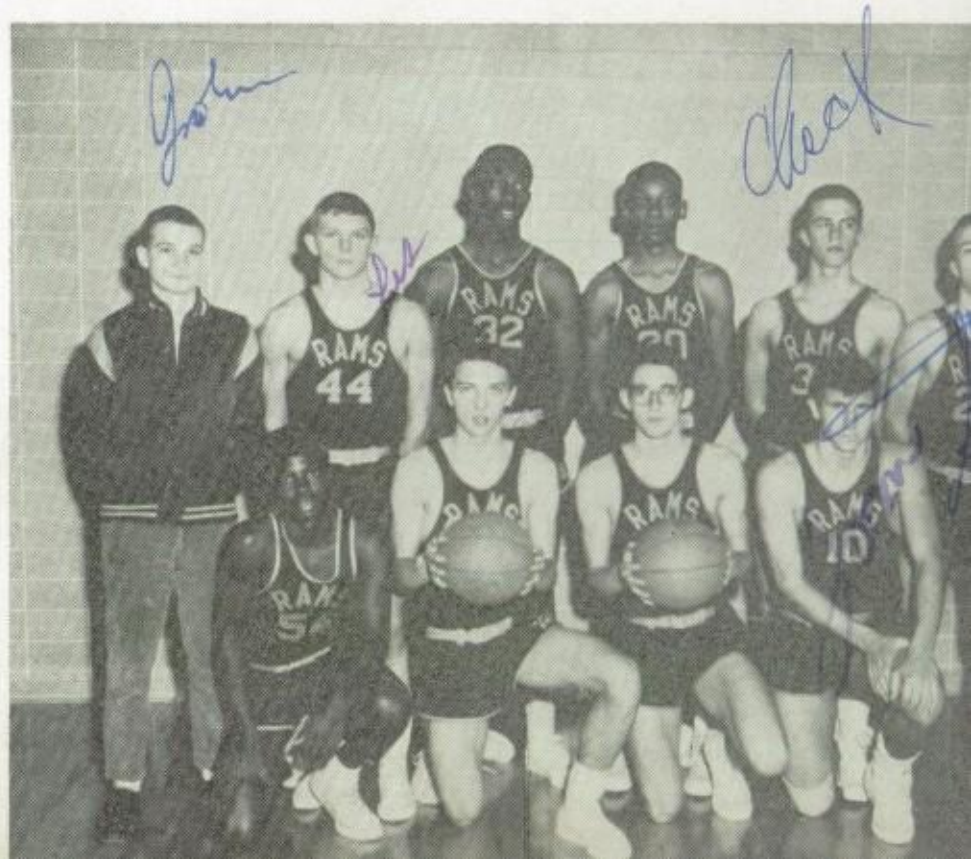

Coach Marion White did an excellent job and deserves our congratulations.

Swimming

Splashing their way through another competitive season, the two year old Mohr swimming team has gained valuable experience in the sport. Although the team failed to win a majority of their meets, it tried its best to be a real challenge to its opponents. Under the instruction of Steve Eastwood, the team showed promise for the coming years.

The Critic, under the direction of Miss Lorana Kauffman, has maintained its high degree of excellence this year as it has in the years past. Students interested in the field of journalism have become better acquainted with its various aspects as editors, beat editors, and reporters. The purpose of the Critic, which is published weekly in the Tribune, is to inform the public of school events.

Jim -
 We haven't had any classes together this year but I hope never still good friends.
 "66" Dan Warden

Jim,
 It's been fun in gym and baseball this year. "Who's the greatest?"
 Well, you don't have to answer that. After you get your license come down and see me. Remember the Pines? Good luck to a real cool guy as ever.
 Chris

Peanut,
 It's been a privilege to be in your squad.
 We had a leader whom we had to look up to.
 Good luck, and have a swell summer Warren

Jim
 The annual staff members, after many long hours of work, wish to express their appreciation to Mr.
 Grunst, our advisor, the Senior High office staff, Mr. Appleyard, Mr. Wauchek, Miss Saxe, Mr. Dehn, Mr. Jessup, and all who have helped to make our annual possible.

John (L.F.)

Jimmy -

Putty soon you'll be a fr. aren't you the lucky one though.

Remember when we went to Glens Bay what that! Remember the baseball games. This one is sloppy.
That's because you made me write it in this line. Mean!

I want to write a long note but I can't think of much to say. Etc etc - - -

- - - - -
- - - - -
- - - - -
Be good next year and this summer. Good luck you deserve it.

Love you Mary 6/11

P.S. I hope you figure out what you are the inside you're lucky.

Jim,
I'm sorry I didn't get to know you better this year. Best of luck in all you do.

Mary

Jim
Since I'm so nice to you (letting you score that touchdown, and writing in your annual, I write so real nice things about you you're probably the littlest guy I know next to Gumbo but you a lot of fun.
Good luck to a little guy with a huge personality.

Steve

Jimmy -
It's been a riot this year hasn't it? Even though you barely made it. Did you? At least we both had the drunk at one time or another. Make it easy this summer on the broads & I'll see you as a junior next year.

Alan "66" (I caught it)

Jim,
What a wonderful year it's been knowing you and I'm looking forward to more wonderful years of fun. Stop sitting around and act your own self. See you sometime this year I hope.
Love ya' always,
Buffy

Jim.
It has been a riot rooing around in session. Best of luck in all you do.
Dave
"66"

Jim,
I guess you made it through Geometry even if you had a problem now and then.
Still good luck as a Jr.
Ginny

Jim - a good thing it's done with we're done with Mem. I doubt if I could have stood much more.
Be good & good luck.
Barb

Jim -
Good luck next year
AS A JUNIOR. I expect You to have fun this summer, spring on the beach parties, but be good.
Best wishes.
Alan

Jim Dorman

Jim —

Well, another year is over and another year is coming. I haven't played you in ping-pong because I beat you too bad.
No good have for I don't miss I would be happy
"66"

Jim Thanks a lot for keeping my typewriter out of order!!

It's been a blast sitting next to you.
Good luck in whatever you do Bar

Your typing buddy

Jim - See ya next year. I hope we (you, Terry, me, Dave) have some classes together (I think mainly). Hope I see ya all this summer Bryce

Jim, It's been a lot of fun having you in Spanish. Had a good vacation and was good.
Good luck to all aggr Rick

Now you're only 2:40 min for freedom by 4:45 PM. Nice going way home. Look on your 70 year. See you next year.
 "Ray"

Jim, Now you are the best Ping Pong player there is. But it really should be you because you are about the nicest person I've met. Good Luck next year
Pom

Jim-
 I have really enjoyed meeting you and being in English with you.
 I'll be able to forget Larry!
 Good luck
 next year!
 Jay

To a pretty good athlete Good luck in what ever you do.
 The Mann

Jim Best of luck in the summer. Have lots of fun in lots of fun. We have had English this year in with you. I was right it was just you.
 Larry

Jim Best of luck
 next year.
 The Mann
